The Highest Ranked Team was awarded the Baker & McKenzie Prize as well as of Investor State Law Guide Prize

*Teams Keith and Mosler pleaded with one advocate only due to last minute visa problems of their co-advocates and oral scores reflect double points as they were allowed to plead all parts on their own but were barred from advancing to the Round of 16.

Teams did not make it to the Global Oral Finals in Buenos Aires but had participated in the written phase of the competition

Highest Ranked Team - Thomas Wälde Fund Recipient

Xue NALSAR University of Law

Due to the generosity of our Thomas Wälde Team Fund sponsors, and the unfortunate turn of events of Team Mosler's second advocate being denied his visa, the Highest Ranked Team among those having received travel support from the Thomas Wälde Fund will – in addition – receive a cash prize this year.

In each of the eight groups the two teams with the most victories advance; if two teams have the same number of victories, the team that won the match between them advances; otherwise the team with the most aggregate preliminary round (raw) points advances.

*In the group including teams Mosler, Xue, Ladreit and Mo, despite only having one advocate Mosler was permitted to participate but precluded from advancing to the Round of 16; to our surprise, Mosler won all four of its matches; Xue won three matches; Ladreit and Mo won two matches each. In this context, an error occurred in determining which of Mo and Ladreit should advance: we overlooked that there had been a head-to-head match between Ladreit and Mo, which Ladreit won, and we advanced Mo based on cumulative points. Ladreit should have advanced. We very much regret this error and herewith apologise again to team Ladreit.
